

Class Play's Bathtub Scene Censored

End of an Era

With the ending of the thirty-eight year history of Landon High School in June, another era will come to an end. This is the thirty-seven year era of the Landon Senior Class Play.

Yes, next Friday will close this era, for the thirty-seventh annual Senior Class Play will be presented by the last and greatest Landon graduating class, the Class of '65.

In 1928, Mrs. R. C. Lynch, now residing in Atlanta, directed the first class play. She sponsored the plays until 1938. From 1938-1941 Betty Dowling directed the class plays. Miss Elaine Parramore sponsored the plays until 1951, when Mrs. Dowling returned. From 1951-1954 Mrs. Dowling directed the class plays, and Mrs. E. Jane Porter, now a speech teacher at Forrest, sponsored the plays from 1955 to 1960. Since 1962 Mrs. Geri Turbow has advised the Senior Classes in their presentations.

Following is a list of the Class Plays and their directors since 1947.

- 1947 "Spring Green," Miss Frances Johnson
- 1948 "Girl Shy," Miss Elaine Parramore
- 1949 "The Fighting Littles," Miss Parramore
- 1950 "Best Foot Forward," Miss Parramore
- 1951 "The Goose Hangs High," Mrs. Betty Dowling
- 1952 "The Adorable Spend-thrift," Mrs. Dowling
- 1953 "The Little Dog Laughed," Mrs. Dowling
- 1954 "Meet Me In St. Louis," Mrs. Dowling
- 1955 "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," Mrs. E. Jane Porter
- 1956 "Spring Dance," Mrs. Porter
- 1957 "Bells on Their Toes," Mrs. Porter
- 1958 "Come Rain or Shine," Mrs. Porter
- 1959 "The Great Big Doorstep," Mrs. Porter
- 1960 "Mother is a Freshman," Mrs. Porter
- 1961 "The Darling Brats," Mr. Paul Nicholas
- 1962 "Gidget," Mrs. Geri Turbow
- 1963 "The Mouse That Roared," Mrs. Turbow
- 1964 "Spring Green," Mrs. Turbow
- and the last and best play
- 1965 "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," Mrs. Turbow

Prom Cancelled

DATELINE RAIFORD: "I ain't gonna tell!" These were the only words that could be gotten from Mike Knox, former Landon student and prom chairman and now in prison for the crime of the century. As you know, Landon's largest scandal in its 38-year history has rocked the institution to its foundation. The money for the prom has been stolen! Yes, that's right, stolen! Without money, the prom will not be held. LONDON HAS BEEN CHEATED OUT OF ITS LAST PROM!!! KNOX SKIPPED WITH THE MONEY!!!

In a subsequent interview, Mike "The Fox" Knox would only say, "CENSORED!!!"

As the Lions Roar has already reported, many lavish treats had been scheduled for the prom. The grand ballroom of the Lido Hotel in Paris had already been reserved, and Rufus Thomas, Lesley Gore, and the Beatles had already signed contracts to furnish the music. This also means that the class will not be able to pay the Chad Mitchell Trio to play during intermission. And what about the five cases of French champagne and the hors d'oeuvres? Not to mention the special jet to fly everyone to Europe.

What will we ever do? Juniors and Seniors, it is up to you! Search for the money; leave no stone unturned and ignore no clues, however small they may be. And, Heaven Forbid, if the money is not to be found, THIS IS A JOB FOR SUPERMAN!

Will Knox crack under the third degree? Can Ringo find true happiness as a married man? Are the Hullabalos really men? Will Clark Kent have his glasses changed? Is the Lions Roar staff being sued for libel?

Find out in the next issue.

Our hearts will be young and gay next Thursday and Friday nights at 8:00 in the auditorium when the Senior Class will present this year's theatrical presentation, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay."

It is a delightful comedy of the true-life adventures of two college freshmen girls, Cornelia Otis Skinner, who would like to become an actress, and Emily Kimbrough, who wishes to enter a career of dancing. On becoming emancipated from their parents, Cornelia (Marli Albright) and Emily (Laurie Barnert) prepare for a trip to Paris. Cornelia's parents (Bob Wolfson and Lauren Silverberg), who are also going to Paris but on a different boat, beg the girls to come with them on their boat, but they refuse. The steward (Rigk DeLongis) really steals the first act because he doesn't understand young girls — especially young girls like Cornelia. The hilarity rises when two English girls (Diane Gregory and Janice Cone) come into the girls' room to brush their teeth because their "beastly water basin won't work."

The play becomes more involved when the purser (Doug Haskins) tells Emily that there's a stowaway on board and becomes riotous when Emily finds she murdered a man and the admiral (Richard Edwards) gives her a medal for it. The two girls fall in love with two boys (George Massey and Warren Williams), who later have to smuggle the girls off the boat because the purser finds out they have the measles.

Later in the play a Madame Elise (Marilyn Klepper) and her daughter Therese (Ann Klein) introduce the girls to an exploding bathtub, a Monsieur DeLa Croix (Howard Rosenblatt) gives Cornelia diaphragm lessons and bedlam breaks loose when the window cleaner (Doug Haskins) gives Cornelia some advice about France. You won't want to miss their hilarious adventures on board the ship and while in France.

The crew members include: Lyn Arnold — scenery; Pat Errico — properties; Richard Edwards — advertising; Mary Carson — Publicity; Diane Sohnle — costume chairman; Bob Schupp — lights chairman; Sandra Schild — make-up chairman; and Ronny Baruch — sound chairman.

The cast and crew are working diligently along with their director, Mrs. Geri Turbow, to make Landon's last Senior Class Play, the best yet!!!

Leading Ladies

THE PUB

by Howard Coker

As an innocent bystander and an instigator of arguments, I have had the opportunity to observe the animals that inhabit Pub Room.

First of all there's blonde-haired, blue-eyed Mary Carson, editor and chief, who does nothing but yell at Donnie Safer, her capable sports editor, who has all his articles in on time and whose column is always a great asset to the paper. She also screams at Angela Jansen and Susan Davis, her advertising editors, and rightly so, due to their incapability to spell Finkelstein's right in the paper. With advertising editors like these, you can see why the paper is never in financial trouble.

Three more of the charmers in Pub Room are pop-drinking Kathy Kelly, Krystal-cruising Steve Danese, and Howard "Fred-dy the Flipper" Rosenblatt who teaches Pub Room the latest dance crazes and doubles as a fat man in the circus.

Then there's Jeff Bootzin and Steve Klausner, the true brains behind this brilliant organization. These two instigate more trouble and are the underlying instruments to all that goes on in Pub Room. Jeff, with his sarcastic remarks, and Steve's flicking ink on Freddy the Flipper's pants—he's great at abstract patterns—keep Pub Room going.

Meanwhile back in the corner, Safer has retaliated and Carson has left the Pub Room, crying and shouting that no one cares about the paper except her. She really has a sad story and my heart goes out to this lily-white lamb.

Here the uninterested bystander notices Fran Peacock and Peggy Mizell who spend the hour vegetating in opposite corners.

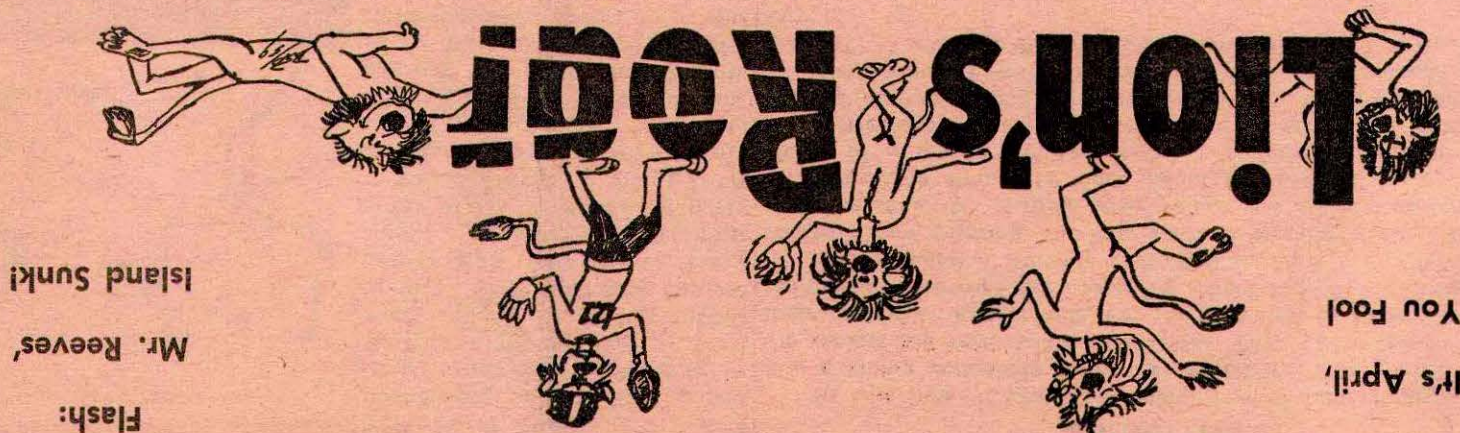

At promptly 11:20 Krystal-cruising Steve returns with the goodies and the rest of the hour is spent in making each other sick with beautiful manners and proper eating habits.

April, 1965

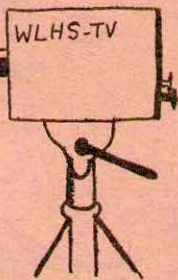

Landon High School—Jacksonville, Florida

Vol. XX Number 13

HARRIETT PRESENTS

"Produced by Harriett Boatwright"

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Coker

Well, guess who I'm interviewing this week? The newly weds, Fran and Howard.

Fran is this year's Managing Editor of Lion's Roar. She's an active member of Future Teachers, and Senior Girls and was a member of Christmas Court (escorted by her husband). Fran was also just recently a Senior Fellows' Cheerleader.

As anyone can easily guess, basketball is Fran's favorite sport. She also loves golf. As she puts it, she likes any sport as long as Howard's part of it! She also enjoys swimming.

In her spare time, Fran likes to be with Howard. She likes to listen to the music of Johnny Mathis, and she loves pizza. Her favorite color is blue, and so is Howard's. Fran's pet peeve is people who don't keep their promises.

When it comes to dating (which is actually in the past now) Fran just loves to fix dinner for Howard and then go to the show afterwards. She'll be fixing all his meals now, right, Fran?

In the future, Fran plans to attend Andrew College, where she will study to become a first grade teacher. Since her marriage, part of her wishes for the future has already been made.

Now, let's meet the other half. Howard is a pretty important fellow around Landon. He's Landon's last Senior Class President, member of Student Council, Senior Fellows, Historical Society, an aedile of J.C.L., and was Fran's escort in the Christmas Court.

When it comes to sports, Howard is one of our best basketball players. He was a great asset to our team this year, and served as co-captain.

Howard is firm in his beliefs. He especially dislikes insincere or as he puts it, "phony" people. He likes the music of the Lettermen and his favorite food is steak. Howard and Fran think a lot alike; when it comes to dating, Howard also likes to go to the show and just have a good time.

In the future, Howard will attend University of Florida where he plans to major in medicine. Howard's and Fran's names are synonymous and have been for a long time now.

The whole school joins me in wishing you'll the "Best of Luck", "Happy Honeymoon", and "Happy April Fool's!!!!"

New York Trip . . . girls . . . Do-check (?) . . . The nie E. "wiped out" by Landon to the school in Pig's car . . . Ron-team . . . Pig and Pat driving up recruit Christy D. for the track reciting Shakespeare . . . Jim B.
Norris calling girls' mothers and titled and you're yours" . . . Frank Marilyn "You're 16, you're beau-Day's Triple" . . . Chuck saying to Mitch and Rick hitless . . . "Great
"weed" . . . Elsie alias C. B. . .
"brown" hair . . . Arlene K's big Murder Your Wife" . . . Bob E's might finding out "How to ride . . . Coach Roey Saturday rict B. . . George on the hay-Fred G. going steady with Har-Chris B. Monday morning . . .
counting money . . . the sign about mendous tank suits . . . Chuck the boy's swimming team's tre-DID YOU SEE ? ? ?
Donna P.
Barby W., Jane A., Sheri L., and breaststroke, and butterfly by demonstrations in the free style, swimming pool. There will be city is installing a new L-shaped sometime after 12:00 today. The
Be sure to look at the courtyard ed by Mr. Burton's cousin, Mike!
to attend so Elizabeth was escort-Fran and Howard's wedding. Un-and Richard Burton were asked to Last weekend Elizabeth Taylor

they will be alright by tomorrow!
boys were eaten by sharks, but ter how hard you try! All the to ski on the beach sand no mat-
M. discovered that it's impossible the "Brown" out of his hair. Jim on the nose while he was washing a 6' sailfish! A crab bit Bob E.
board, but he slipped and landed
C. used his skateboard as a surf-down the hill backwards. George "Little G. T. O." and doing a while playing a banjo singing to slip! Frank G. "busted his bun" until he tried to "hang ten" while guard rail over the intercostal beach. Fred G. decided to ride the strapped their skateboards to
of the guys. George C., Bob E., Over the "freedom days" a few shore!!!

rode on their backs to get to tage of their new playmates and maid harem. The boys look advancovered. Bill fell when he stepped others, a rare treasure was dis-by Bill P., Larry H., Mike A., and On a recent camping trip taken wouldn't mean anything to you!
changed, because if I did, they hear are real. The names are not The stories you are about to started to throw some old Lan-donians down on "Crim", but instead, an old "Bask in the Bahamas" sign was thrown down.

With it came the money. Yes, it was raining money down on Carson. Safer got so excited, he jumped to the ground four shelves
below. That wasn't enough to disturb Gefen from eating, Ellison
from flipping milk cartons, Steve Danese's "Here we go out the Window" games, Susan Davis
studying (??), and of course it didn't disturb Fran and Howard over in the corner. Safer, seeing this, was all for splitting it with
Mary, but her faithful loyalty
(?) to the good ole Lion's Roar
wouldn't think of this.

That's why:
THE LION'S ROAR—IS IN DEBT NO MORE!!

Senioritis

At this time of year the senior class of Landon usually goes into a slump commonly known as senioritis. This year, however, the seniors are remarkably industrious. They never fail to prepare their homework assignments. For the first time in Landon's history, seniors have frowned upon skipping school and cutting classes.

Former Landon students visiting their alma mater have found this condition shocking. The Pub Room, in previous years, a breeding place for senioritis, is filled with serious and industrious seniors.

Something should be done about this condition now. In the words of a former Landon student, "serious seniors can change the entire school structure. It's time we see some real laziness and procrastination among our seniors, they're working too hard."

Well, seniors, how do you feel about this? Have you been working too hard? If senioritis doesn't exist in Landon it's only on April Fool's Day.

If you see yourself on Candid Camera Sunday night!!!
the "candid camera" Cameras were taking your picture. Don't faint
I guess I ought to warn you. As you were reading this column
4 d's and 2 e's. Tough break, Lauren.

If you saw Lauren Lucas's report card, you would have seen the thing. Believe me, I just got my equipment. Anyone for a swim!!!
Surfing is finally going out! Instead scuba diving is the new whom or what!!

What's that Lucy? You decided to join the WACS to be near seems that he likes Judy now.

Looks like Anne Knight and Jon French have broken up. It recently told me that she wanted to gain 30 pounds. Good luck, Lisa!!

Well, it looks like Lisa Sloat has decided to become fat. She Athletic Department.

generously donated the money to his favorite charity — Landon tournament held in Jax, won $5000 for his excellent playing. He has Glenn Cohen, who recently played in the professional golf smiles.

open, we won't be able to hear her merry laugh or see her cheery she can make an appointment with the dentist to pry her mouth peanut butter from her sandwich is caught between her teeth. Until An unfortunate event has happened to Donna Peacock. Some want to harm their reputations.

I repeat, do not tell of this scandalous affair to anyone. I wouldn't lips!! Please, if you happen to know these two immoral people, do not.

a certain sophomore boy censured a certain sophomore girl on the There's been a rumor going around school lately. It seems that

Oh well, she wasn't good anyway.

Can you believe it? Candy Butler has given up diving for Lent!!
Gilda.

Hilda failed tenth grade last year and is really 1 1/2 years older than and friends believe they are twins. Even though we all know that

Hilda and Gilda Goldman have been trying to make their teachers way to transport their scuba diving equipment.

Dowell, Bill Branch, Patsy Knox are having trouble figuring out a spend the upcoming spring vacation Carlton Powers, Nancy Mc-

Of the many sophomores planning to go to Ft. Lauderdale to FLASH!!!

SOPHOMORE SCANDAL

We're In Debt No More !!

I'm sure everyone has heard at least once since they've been at Landon, that the Lion's Roar is in debt. Well this statement can be declared FALSE from now on. Last week, "Criminal Carson," Editor of the Lion's Roar, presented Coleman Printers with a 5,000 dollar check. Here's how this presentation came about:

One quiet day (as it always is) in the pub room, "Criminal Carson," and "Surfin' Safer" were having one of their very rare occasional brawls, when Carson accidentally knocked Safer up to the top shelf by the window. Safer (who was ready to stay there)

started to throw some old Lan-donians down on "Crim", but instead, an old "Bask in the Bahamas" sign was thrown down.
With it came the money. Yes, it was raining money down on Carson. Safer got so excited, he
jumped to the ground four shelves
below. That wasn't enough to disturb Gefen from eating, Ellison
from flipping milk cartons, Steve Danese's "Here we go out the Window" games, Susan Davis
studying (??), and of course it
didn't disturb Fran and Howard
over in the corner. Safer, seeing
this, was all for splitting it with
Mary, but her faithful loyalty
(?) to the good ole Lion's Roar
wouldn't think of this.

That's why:
THE LION'S ROAR—
IS IN DEBT NO MORE!!

WE'RE THE SENIORS AND WE'RE PROUD — THANKS!

VIVI MARLI
ROZIE BECKIE
PAT JANICE
FRAN BRIDIER
HARRI MARKA

LA MEE
THE FLORIST

1516 Atlantic Blvd. 398-5256

HERMAN JACKSON
Established Since 1928

1983 SAN MARCO BLVD. PHONE FL 9-7010

EXPERT CLEANING

FINKELSTEIN'S

"Whatever The Sport — We Furnish The Equipment"

633 W. BAY EL 4-4675

by Beverly Sargent

Bob

Fraser's
SHOE REPAIR SHOP

1401 Atlantic Blvd. 359-3313

SIGMUNDS
Cos-Cobs

Lovely Selection of Long Formals
For Your Prom

Perry Composition & Engraving

4038 Philips Highway 398-0573

Halpern's
MEN'S AND BOYS' SHOP

*PALM BEACH *VAN HEUSEN *CREIGHTON SHIRTMAKERS
*HAGGAR *McGREGOR *FARAH

Doorway To A Man's World

5061 NORMANDY BLVD. — 100 Yards East of Montgomery Ward
3647 PHILIPS HIGHWAY PLAZA

"Well, boys," replies the coach, "I remember one day when I swam for Fletcher, back in the good old days. . . . As he continues his reverie with eyes closed, his enormous bulk settled under a pine tree, the whole team retires on tippy-toes to the nearest bar to end a perfect day at the pool."

"Tell us a story, Coach. Pretty please with cherries on top!"

At the end of the day's practice, the team approaches Coach Lee; he was too slow to make the grade, so he remained on as manager.

Next, the coaches say, "Let's sprint an 800, team!" Everybody boys. Bury me back in old Montezuma."

making too many false starts. His last words were, "It hurts like fire, fired the gun to start the relay? No, he has shot Clark Williams for applauds loudly. Suddenly, a shot rings out! Has Coach Johnson Then Smith does a triple somersault off the board as everyone dressing room to compare bruises.

errand. When they return, the would-be lifeguards retire to the are nowhere to be seen — Terry Smith has sent them on a little and throws them both in the pool. Irving Schermer and Norm Sullivan Don't Let Me Be Misunderstood" Coach Lee dries Sater's tears After Wayne Webb and Donny Sater voice a tearful chorus of "Please After everyone arrives at practice, the action goes like this: backstroke, but he was slowed when ice began to form on his feet. flat for the 50 free style. Leon Yergin started strongly on the 100 a 4:32.8 in the 400-meter free style, and Tommy Jeffries had a 20 using wings in the race. Norm (FLASH) Sullivan turned in for a 1:59.5 in the 200-meter free style, but he was disqualified for Some fine times have been clocked. Steve Klausner was clocked water makes everybody want to jump right in.

see who can be the first one in the pool; the delicious warmth of the A typical day at practice starts out with everyone trying to flashlights when the water gets murky.

Well, sports fans, another successful season has dawned for the swimming team. Due to the great response by the student body we have 53 boys on the team! The school has also furnished orange tank suits for the boys; they are so bright that they can be used as flashlights when the water gets murky.

If You Believe This, You're All Wet!!

Howard Coker, Landon's fair-haired turnabout twinkletoes of the basketball court, has signed a fat contract with the Los Angeles Lakers pro basketball team, thus ending a feverish round of speculation and recruiting by all the major pro scouts.

Coker was thought to have signed with New York, but a last minute offer by the Lakers, consisting of an autographed sweat-sock by Wilt the Stilt, an autographed photo of Blaze Starr, and Jayne Mansfield's phone number, convinced Howard to make tracks for California.

The Bomber (alias The Stump, alias Porky Pig) first attracted attention in grueling games of Big Lou, winning the Third Invitational Big Lou Tournament held in Pohunk, Idaho. His finest moment was in the Bolles game, when he gave a cowardly Bulldog

a vicious karate chop to the throat, smashing him soundly in the jaw with his other hand. However, Our Howie did not use knees and elbows so he proved himself a true sportsman. (Except for the time he kicked the opposing captain in the ankle.) Another moment of glory came when he told the ref, "Get your CENSORED the CENSORED off the court, darn it!"

With such pugilistic skill, Howard might consider boxing in the off-season. Does Cassius have a contender for the crown? The Champ was not available for comment, but when Floyd Patterson was told the news, he said, "There goes my comeback!" Sonny Liston merely trembled at the idea.

Howard has many varied interests. When he is not on the floor, he writes books. His current best seller is the "Legend of the Marauder" which he insists upon mentioning in this article. On weekends, he is a bookie.

GOOD LUCK, HOWIE! LANDON IS BEHIND YOU FOREVER!

Coker Signs With Lakers

Howard Coker, Landon's fair-haired turnabout twinkletoes of the basketball court, has signed a fat contract with the Los Angeles Lakers pro basketball team, thus ending a feverish round of speculation and recruiting by all the major pro scouts.

Coker was thought to have signed with New York, but a last minute offer by the Lakers, consisting of an autographed sweat-sock by Wilt the Stilt, an autographed photo of Blaze Starr, and Jayne Mansfield's phone number, convinced Howard to make tracks for California.

The Bomber (alias The Stump, alias Porky Pig) first attracted attention in grueling games of Big Lou, winning the Third Invitational Big Lou Tournament held in Pohunk, Idaho. His finest moment was in the Bolles game, when he gave a cowardly Bulldog

a vicious karate chop to the throat, smashing him soundly in the jaw with his other hand. However, Our Howie did not use knees and elbows so he proved himself a true sportsman. (Except for the time he kicked the opposing captain in the ankle.) Another moment of glory came when he told the ref, "Get your CENSORED the CENSORED off the court, darn it!"

With such pugilistic skill, Howard might consider boxing in the off-season. Does Cassius have a contender for the crown? The Champ was not available for comment, but when Floyd Patterson was told the news, he said, "There goes my comeback!" Sonny Liston merely trembled at the idea.

Howard has many varied interests. When he is not on the floor, he writes books. His current best seller is the "Legend of the Marauder" which he insists upon mentioning in this article. On weekends, he is a bookie.

GOOD LUCK, HOWIE! LANDON IS BEHIND YOU FOREVER!

Track '65

(for real)

Landon's final season of sport is closing out with an exceptionally good track team. Coach John Guido has high hopes for his talented charges and urges everyone to come out and support them. Here's an inside look at the team:

Running the mile this year are Tim Romydy, James Heath, and Peck Vinson. Romydy turns in a 5:03 on the mile.

In the 880 yd. event its George Copeland running it in 2:07. Close behind are John Graham, Don Cone, and Jack Minge with 2:09, 2:12, 2:12, respectively.

Dave Merrick excels in the 440 yd. dash, sprinting it in 42 seconds flat. Johnny Jones, Chuck Hyatt, and Steve Edenfield are also turning in fine performances in the 440.

The 220 yd. dash is burnt up quickly this year by Randy Lord and Kim McFeely.

Mike Burton stands out in the 100 yd. dash with an impressive 10.4. Mike is but four-tenths of a second away from tying the state record.

Ralph Kennedy has hit 16.9 on the 120 yd. high hurdle. The state record is 15 seconds.

Running the 180 yd. low hurdle are Mike Burton, Steve Edenfield, and Ralph Kennedy.

Coach Guido says that his 880 yd. relay is just fair at the moment, but in the sprint medley relay and the mile relay the boys are close to breaking the school record.

Turning to field events we find Mike Burton once again on top in the broad jump. Bobby Barry and Jon French are also fine leapers in this event.

Ronnie Ellison is the big man in the discus throw. Ron is nearing a school record with his best heave so far at 137 feet.

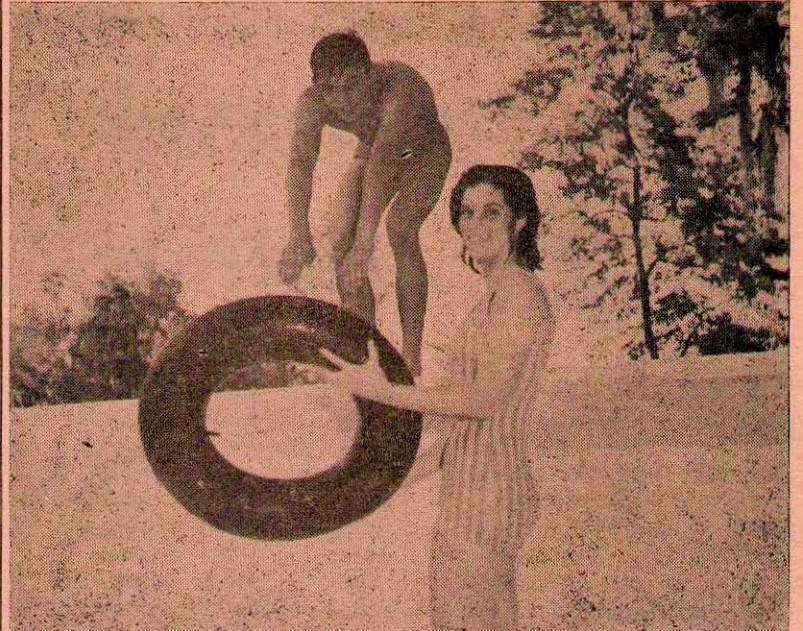

Throwing the shotput this year are Ellison again along with Jack Mizell.

Tommy Hodge and Jimmy Adkins are on the long end of the pole vault event this year.

Landon's finest field event is the high jump. Holding the school record is David Merrick with a leap of 6'1". Ron Ellison clears the bar at 5'10" and Fred Floyd at 5'4".

Landon will have a group meet at Forrest on April 30th. Coach Guido has his sights set for this one so try to be there to support our last track team. You may be in for a big surprise.

Fightin' Lions

by Elliot Borkson

JANE ABERCROMBIE

Now that spring is here, the swimming team is in high gear. The captain of the girls' team this year is the buoyant Jane Abercrombie. Jane will be swimming her specialty, the 100 yd. backstroke, in state competition at Boca Raton this year. Jane started swimming in the ninth grade and earned her first letter in her freshman year. Since then she has added three more "L's" to her collection in swimming.

Jane is a busy young lady when she is not swimming. She is Vice-President of the Student Council, a member of the National Honor Society and the Junior Classical League, Secretary of the Historical Society, a cheerleader, and was recently named "Best All Around" by the Senior Class. She also loves to do Solid Geometry, which is her favorite subject; because of her analytical mind Jane is at the head of the class.

STEVE MACRI

Steve Macri, the leading scorer on this year's boys' swimming team, is considered to be one of the top swimmers in the county. Steve is a versatile swimmer but he rates best in the 100 yard butterfly and the 50 yard free-style. Steve has already qualified for this year's Class A State Meet in Boca Raton and should be a top contender. Steve was picked to swim with the Northeast Florida All-Stars against the University of Florida Freshman Team but the Florida Freshmen chickened out when they found out that Steve was swimming. This is only Steve's second year on the team but Steve has made up for his late start in competitive swimming by hard work at practice and following a strict diet of wholesome food and beverages.

When Steve isn't swimming or doing land exercises he is either home in bed with the flu or at the doctor's office getting an excuse from practice in the heated pool. Steve is planning to attend Michigan or the University of Florida next year, probably Florida because he gets homesick very easily. Wherever he goes he will be a great addition to the swimming team.

Attention Seniors

TERM PAPER DEADLINE EXTENDED TO JUNE 8th

MARLI SIGNS CONTRACT WITH MGM

Victorious Again?

March 18 at 9:00 p.m. at the annual lawn tennis association banquet five Landon girls walked proudly up to the head table and received the tennis trophy they had worked so hard and long to win. These proud girls were Dale "Cripple" Duke, Pat "Zoom Zoom" Granger, Emily "Dumb-head" Edwards, Jean "Amazon" Maxwell, and Barbara "Amazon" trophy.

We are proud of the girls' tennis team and congratulate them on their victory.

Ever since September these girls have practiced tennis every

"Everybody Goes" To

Frisch's Big Boy

BEACH BLVD.
at UNIVERSITY

TEXAS DRIVE INN RESTAURANT

CURB AND DINING ROOM SERVICE

1321 SAN MARCO BOULEVARD

THANKS JR. BOYS AND WE MEAN IT, APRIL 1st OR NOT!

CYNTHIA
TROY
BUNNY

NANCY ARLENE
SHERI
JO ANNE

TERESA
DALE
CHRISTY

FREE CAR WASH

WITH FILL UP GAS PURCHASE — 15 GAL. OR MORE

You Save Approximately 10c Per Gallon
At These Automatic Car Washes

SOUTH END OF MAIN STREET BRIDGE

714 STOCKTON STREET

25 WEST 4th STREET

(GAS 2c PER GALLON LESS THAN OTHER CAR WASHES) REG. 32.9

C & B SALVAGE

FREIGHT SALVAGE
GENERAL MERCHANDISE
FURNITURE—OFFICE EQUIPMENT
7121 BEACH BLVD. 725-3477

Headquarters For Levi's

Plaza Western Store
PHILIPS HIGHWAY PLAZA

EARL THOMAS

Interesting Flowers For Any Occasion
1972 San Marco Blvd.

by Kipp cast fashion

If you have not heard the news yet, I'd better tell you—two of our Landonites, Fran Peacock and Howard Coker have gone and "got hitched." Our Senior Spotlights reported on the essentials of the wedding, and I'm going to report on the details—fashion wise, that is.

I was lucky enough to be able to be one of the few chosen to attend the wedding (I'm pretty great and therefore deserve these special privileges). As I entered the church I was aware of the excitement in the air. I took my seat just as the wedding music began to play. In came Mrs. Peacock, escorted by the best man, Richard McEvoy (now who else did you think the "best man" would be). Mrs. Peacock wore a very stunning mother-of-the-bride outfit, a bright gold lamee long gown that had a diamond studded zipper down the front. For accessories she wore a large diamond necklace, a diamond tiara, diamond rings and earrings, and gold spiked-heeled shoes which had diamond studded heels, all going very well with her zipper. Richard was attired in sone levis and a Beethoven sweatshirt with his baseball shoes and knee socks. Next came Howard's mother on the arm of Chuck Hyatt (who happened to be bridesmaid Jeanie Simmons' escort). Chuck got a mohawk haircut for this occasion. Mrs. Simmons wore a beautiful mother-of-the-bridegroom outfit. It was a bright orange velvet floor-length shift with black velvet trimming and black velvet sleeves. (Later she told me that she felt that since it was a high school wedding, she should wear the high school colors). With the gown, she wore purple heels and a purple bandana to match.

Following this handsome couple came Jeannie wearing a black discotheque dress, with red, green, blue, yellow, and pink paisly stockings and a red and white checked sailor hat to match. Next to march down the aisle came Geri Kirby and Jim Post White in their new multi-colored madras steady shirts. Geri wore with her shirt green knee socks, her saddle oxfords, and her Bishop Kenny plaid skirt as a reminded of days past when she went there, and Jim wore his blue jeans and cowboy boots.

The last couple in the procession were Donna Peacock and Bob Glenn. Donna was donned (ha, ha - wasn't that clever). in a shocking pink brocade floor-length evening suit over her tank suit (apparently she had just arrived from a swim meet—her hair was still wet and she left a puddle of water behind her as she walked down the aisle). To match Donna, Bob wore a shocking pink tuxedo with a yellow cummer-bun and bow tie and, to complete the outfit, he wore a yellow beany with a propeller on the top.

Finally Fran arrived at the entrance and slowly came down the aisle on her father's arm. She was a beautiful bride from head to toe in red sequined floor-length sheath fitting tightly until it suddenly flared out at the ankles. She wore a red net veil embroidered with gold rose buds which hung down the back forming a train. Her bouquet consisted of silver sprayed magnolia leaves that were contributed by none other than yours truly (I had a whole box full of silver sprayed magnolia leaves left over from the Christmas Dance decorations). Mr. Peacock had evidently arrived from playing golf because he still had on his golf shoes with his tuxedo.

As Fran joined Howard's side at the altar, they made a strikingly handsome couple. Howard was dressed in a beaded sport coat (he rented it from Liberachi) and madras suspended slacks.

The ceremony was perfectly lovely; and I must admit I cried, as all women are supposed to do at a wedding. We all piled out before the newlyweds left so that we could throw rice at them. As Fran and Howard rushed out of the church, Fran tossed her bouquet. It seemed to be coming right my way, and I would have caught it if the shoe lace to my army boots hadn't tripped me. Instead, Judy Knight, who was standing right in front of me caught the bridal bouquet. I guess she'll be the next one to marry.

After bringing you this lovely account of the wedding, I would end right now, but Gwendolyn has a very important fashion flash for you.

DOLLED-UP DRAWERS

Yes, men's drawers have become elegant. The newest thing this year is to own a pair of drawers decorated, for example, by lace printed with cupids and hearts, with pastel Easter bunnies hopping all over the place; or perhaps simply embroidered with roses or another favorite flower. For the golfer, they came with maps of several of the most famous golf courses throughout the world.

P.S. I know this is the Aprils Fool's Day issue, but I didn't want y'all to suffer through a complete paper of hogwash—so I decided to keep my column in a more serious mood.

Landon Key Club Visits Beach

The Landon Key Club held a beach party at Hill 13 by suggestion of Leonard Selber. Mike Burton, Mike O'Neal and Wade Steffen had to keep in training, so they sat around and watched all the fun and drank cokes.

A few familiar faces we link together around Landon's Snakey halls were also seen popping out of the sand dunes every now and then, covered with sand were: Jimmy Slater and Mary Carson, Jack Mizell and Patricia Andreau and Leon Yergin and Linda Webb.

Jack Mizell invited Arlene Kramer but she had to refuse because she already had plans to go out with the girls. She felt so badly about it that she fixed him up with some slob named Patricia. He hasn't forgiven her yet.

While Jon French, Joe Hayes, Jim Montgomery and Mike Knox talked with their dates in the woods, Rick wrote Barbara, Jack Minge ran up and down the beach, Mose Meide laughed at his jokes (nobody else would), and Frank Norris conducted an imaginary AFS meeting.

Quite a few of the members and their dates were a little late due to the fact that they had no means of transportation. Seen stepping off the city bus from a pleasurable ride were: Howard Coker and Jeanne Simmons, Julian Mack and Madelyn Levin, Bob Glenn and Teresa Carter.

Jimmy Slater and Richard McEvoy were really polite to their dates, I don't know what came over them but they actually let their dates share their blanket with them.

Wayne Webb, one of Landon's top surfers, hung ten all the way to Hawaii — what's in Hawaii anyway? He still isn't back and his parents are very worried, their cars rusting!

Another tradgedy is that Evelyn was stag again, you'd think that someone would have made a sacrifice and asked her — we can't all be Most attractive!

If you were among those who attended and had a ball, you better check with Richard Edwards and I've heard he's got some real good candid shots of quite a few of you — in the act of being yourselves! ! !

FLASH!!
Mr McCorkle Shipped To MOSCOW

Songs "Just Destined" To Become Hits

Just Fryin' Chickens — By Beverly Hart
Number one hit in Japan — By Jeannie and Rory
Here we go down the mountain — By Jane and Judy
We're going to Dipper Dan's — By the Junior Girls
I Love to work on Fashion Shows — By Donna Edenfield
I Hate Shoes — By Bunny Hicklin
I'm the teacher now — By Elliot Borkson
I Like Sand — By Diane Gregory
I'm Sore — By the junior cheerleaders

And if you believe this, you're an April Fool.
School will be dismissed for ground breaking of the pool.
How I envy those seniors who really rate.
The field trip to Europe is sure to be great.
Any grade given that's below a "D."
The teachers have decided that there shall not be
From whose windows you see birds go by.
A restaurant that revolves is on top of Landon High.
Since there's no money for the teacher's pay.
School will be dismissed for 30 days.
And lots of news has just arrived.
It's the first of April, 1965

First of April '65

Junior Delinquents

TRAVEL MUCH??

Well, it looks like it just isn't the thing to go to school anymore! Everybody is taking trips now-a-days. If it's not going to New York to see plays, operas and bars, it's off to Tallahassee to see the Capital! Oh, yes! We mustn't forget French Congress in Miami. As a matter of fact, they're there now. Wonder if they'll ever come back since Jacksonville is so much more exciting than Miami! Well, we'll see, won't we?

WHAT'S THE LATEST?

The latest thing is going to Dipper Dan's and getting a vanilla ice cream cone! You go in and see so many flavors, that you can't decide, so you just get vanilla! Of course, you can always get the bubble gum ice cream and blow fake bubbles! That's another new craze I thought you might be interested in!

It looks as though all wrapping is being done in pastels now. There's a big sale at Food Fair — 5 for 19¢. Stock up for the weekend and, oh yes, here's a notice: anyone interested in wrapping Saturday night, please contact Stuart Hecht by at least Saturday at noon. His car is filling up fast, so hurry.

ON THE SOCIAL SCENE

The Prom will be held on August 20th from 12 noon til 2 p.m. at the Oasis. Wear formal attire and bring surf boards!

I hear the seniors have decided not to graduate but to go on to Wolfson with us juniors instead. Gosh, you can tell their hearts are in the right place!

The Junior Girls' Fashion Show will be held on January 3, 1965 at the Coliseum. It will be sponsored by the Nearly New Shop and is supposed to be real good so ya'll come!

Speaking of fashion — some darling outfits have been seen around Landon lately. One is Kathy W.'s white ruffly, lacy blouse and her gathered red velvet skirt. Another is Christy D.'s cute little yellow low-waisted dress with alternating brown and red bows on the skirt. And there's always Cynthia M.'s pale pink skirt (worn with a hoop skirt, of course) and her matching green overblouse. Be sure and follow these girls' examples as they are a few of the Junior Girls' models and ought to know!

BITS AND PIECES

Bob G. has decided to trade his GTO in on a '55 Chevy. Craig C. and Steve M. finally got wise and they both have gotten crew cuts! Greg D. has died his hair blonde—he got tired of black. Jeanne S. has finally gotten a gas pedal, Literary Illusions??

I'll bet than no one realized the talent of many Landon juniors. The art of writing has been taken up by some talented students. Susan Davis has just edited a new book called "Silence Is Golden." Jeanne Simmons has shown her talent in writing the great book on "How to Be a Track Star." I've read Barbara Gefen's new book entitled "How to Play Tennis." This is great for those who would like to excel in this sport.

A few others are:
"How to Keep Track of Keys," by Nancy Chappell
"How to Date During Basketball Season," by All but 5
"How to Keep Warm," by the swimming team
"How to Play 'Doggie and the Bone' ", by second period.

a blinker, a speedometer, windshield wipers, and a back seat to her car! We have discovered some new talent in a few junior girls. A new barbershop quartet has been formed. Anyone interested in joining, please contact somebody! There have been a few casualties occurring to certain junior girls. One has had her two front teeth knocked out. Another has had her leg amputated and still another has had her nose cut off! We're sorry, girls!

GUESS WHAT?

Well, the love bug around Landon has been running around as usual and here's some positive proof that it's been going wild.

Heard Rick Copps went up to visit his old love Barbara and fell in love with her room-mate. Oh well.

Rory found out that the one she liked all along was Fred. If at first you don't succeed — try, try again.

Jeanne and Chuck made a mutual agreement not to talk to each other and they are getting along so well now that they have decided to get married.

Poor Craig. He got a crew cut the other day and now Jo-Ann doesn't recognize him at all. She keeps wandering around asking people if they've seen Craig and she cries all the time.

Heard Dale and Ed couldn't find anybody else to fight with so they got back together and are happily fighting away.

Last Tuesday Donna and Julian broke up for the 87th time. Four more times and they'll hold a record.

Gary Ross's harem is growing bigger every day. If it gets any larger Mrs. Smith is going to have a jealous fit.

Last I heard Amelia Edwards has sworn off all boys (including 6'3" athletes) and is devoting all her time to tennis and athletes.

Seems like every time I go out I always see Nancy and Bobby doubling with Margaret and Bobby... or is it Margaret and Bobby doubling with Nancy and Bobby... No, it's Bob and Bob doubling with Nancy and Bob. Now that's not right either; maybe it's Bobby and....

Billy Doyle's really hot in 3rd period — flirts so much he's been moved 18 times now.

PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERS

OSSI'S APOTHECARY

Where Pharmacy is a Profession
Not a Sideline
REGISTERED PHARMACISTS
John Ossi — George Ossi
3839 Hendricks Ave. Phone 359-7786

HAMILTON'S

1510 Hendricks Avenue

JEWELER & WATCH REPAIR

THIS SPACE CLEANED BY

PERSIA RUG CO.

Rug Cleaning Exclusively